FURNISHER

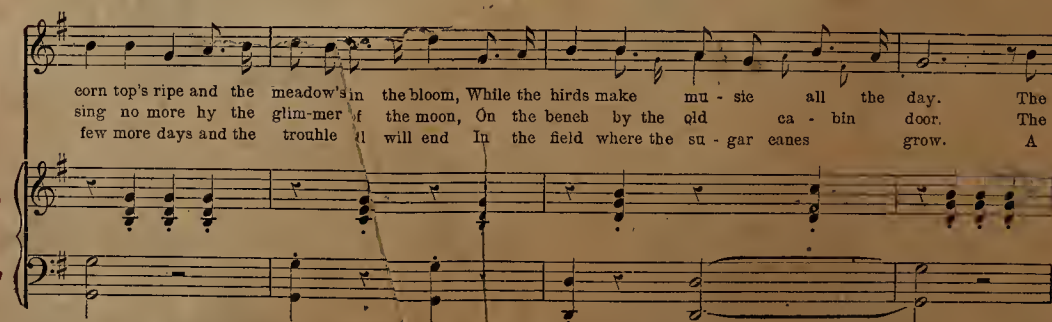

Moderato. By STEPHEN C. FOSTER.

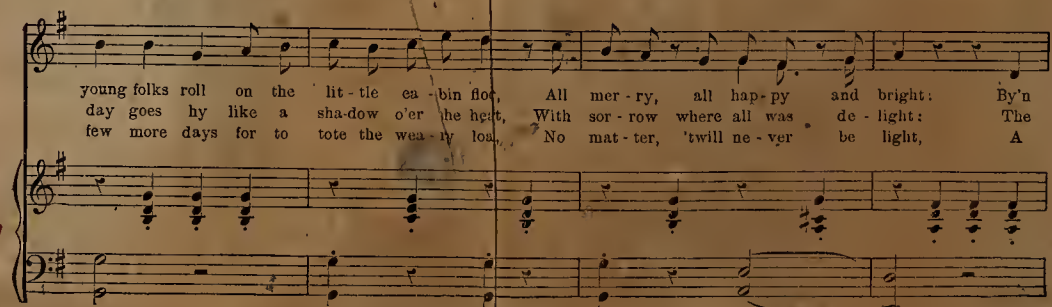

1. The sun shines bright in the old Kentucky home, 'Tis summer, the darkies are gay, The
2. They hunt no more for the pos-sum and the coon, On the meadow, the hill and the shore, They
3. The head must bow and the hack will have to bend, Where-ever the darkey may go, A corn top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom, While the birds make mu-sic all the day. The sing no more by the glim-mer of the moon, On the bench by the old ca-bin door. The few more days and the trouble 'll will end In the field where the su-gar canes grow. A young folks roll on the lit-tle ea-bin floor, All mer-ry, all hap-py and bright: By'n day goes by like a sha-dow o'er the heat, With sor-row where all was de-light: The few more days for to tote the wea-ry load, No mat-ter, 'twill ne-ver be light, A
